Exposed walls: All exposed panels of constructed exhibits, with particular emphasis on back walls, must be finished with back wall to present an attractive appearance when viewed from aisles or other adjoining booths. If in Management's sole opinion, any exhibit requires additional hard walls or other decoration to hide any unfurnished or unsightly exposed surface, the Exhibitor will be charged that cost and will be solely responsible for its payment.

Mobile or trailer exhibits: These types of exhibits are permitted only within the Exhibitor's contracted booth space and where height permits. Exhibitors using mobile or trailer-type exhibits must give advance written notice to Management. Mobile or trailer exhibits cannot be used in parking areas or any other location outside of the contracted booth space during show hours.

Exhibitor agrees to observe, to the extent applicable, all union contracts and labor relations agreements in force between Colorado Garden Foundation and contractors providing services to the facility and governing companies operating in the facility in which the show is taking place.
